

MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT

 www.macmillan.org.uk

Macmillan Support Line on 0808 808 00 00 (7 days a week-8am-8pm)

Macmillan / Crossroads Care Kent Kent & Medway Volunteer Service

The Macmillan / Crossroads Care Kent Volunteer Service in Kent & Medway helps people living with cancer and their Carers, providing practical and emotional support and companionship. Our team of volunteers freely give their time, energy, skills and expertise to help and support people affected by cancer across Kent & Medway.

 Website: Crossroads Kent Macmillan Service

 Phone: +443450956701

FREE SPECIALIST COUNSELLING

Macmillan and Bupa are working in partnership to provide free counselling and emotional support to people living with cancer (PLWC) who are struggling to cope emotionally.

Currently, people living with cancer need to self-refer via the Macmillan Support Line (MSL). It is not possible for healthcare professionals to refer PLWC on their behalf.

Counselling and Emotional Well-being Support

TALK WITH A TELEPHONE BUDDY

- Free telephone buddy service.
- A volunteer buddy to listen, talk and support so no one has to face cancer alone.

 Macmillan Telephone Buddies

Benefits and Financial Support

Support Grants for patients: ( Up to £350)

 Macmillan Patient Grants

 Macmillan Welfare Advice Service \(East Kent\)

 The Medway Council & Macmillan Welfare Benefits Service

CORONAVIRUS INFORMATION FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS

Cancer and coronavirus resources, and emotional health and wellbeing information for healthcare professionals.

 Coronavirus Information for Healthcare Professionals

 Macmillan Coronavirus Homepage

Macmillan Primary Care Workforce Team Email: kmccg.macmillanprimarycare@nhs.net

Providing training & support for all members of the Primary Care Workforce

Kent and Medway
Cancer Alliance